

Steady On Point

August 30, 2013 Newsletter, Issue 90

NAVHDA is a nonprofit corporation whose purpose is to foster, promote, and improve the versatile hunting dog breeds in North America; to conserve game by using well trained reliable hunting dogs before and after the shot; and to aid in the prevention of cruelty to animals by discouraging nonselective and uncontrolled breeding, which produces unwanted and un-cared for dogs.

Presidents Letter - Gary Engebretsen

The Chapter's season has come to a close. Where has that season gone?

First let me thank all the people who have helped through out the year. We had folks stepping forward to pick up birds, handle lunches, work for the test days, helping Invitational handlers, and just helping in training. NAVHDA is a volunteer organization at all levels and we are very lucky to have great people who are willing to help. THANK YOU.

Next let me congratulate all the people who tested their dogs this year. I saw some really nice dogs and people who are committed to training. The Chapter is well known for putting out great dogs and committed to ensuring we have better hunting dogs.

We do have four dogs and handlers heading to this years Invitational in Ohio. Scott Daenicke, Pete Bistis, Cortney Schaefer, and Bob Popelka. Good luck to all of them.

There are also a few people going to help at the event. That's quite a commitment. Drive 13-14 hours, spend money out of their own pockets for gas, food, and lodging, only to work and cheer on our chapter members.

Hope to see you all again next spring.

Have fun with your dogs,
Good luck hunting,
And be safe,

Gary Engebretson

NCW August Test Results - Sheryle Tepp

We held a single test on Friday, and two tests on Saturday and Sunday. A special thank you to all of the volunteers who came to work during the test, the test Secretary Sally Peeters for her patience and handling last minute changes, and the judges who came to our test - it would be darned hard to hold a successful test without your help! Judges for the weekend were: Brent Catura, Jerome Schenk, Vic Connors, TJ McKenzie, Terry Petro, Mike Melotik, Ken Pierce, Angela Coenen and Sheryle Tepp.

I have the scores below - but they are NOT OFFICIAL and I apologize in advance if there is an error. Please refer to the NAVHDA website and your official paperwork if you feel there is a discrepancy.
